A LEGACY OF A STRONG BRAND AND QUALITY PRODUCTS

Since 1937, RS has been selling products using its own label

Our own brand RS Pro is an extension of our roots and legacy as a company.

Our goal is to give our customers choice

RS have since developed into a multi-brand distributor, with customer choice at the heart of our business. Our RS Pro range is part of this choice, where quality and performance meet price.

We stand behind the products we sell

The RS seal of approval means every RS Pro product meets industry recognised standards and rigorous compliance tests. Our team of in-house engineers work with independent organisations to confirm compliance and ensure the right levels of quality and performance.
